June 2019

Dear Recruiter:

I would like to express my interest in the Geophysics position in your company. I learned of the available job opportunity in your company immediately interested. I am a graduate of Nnamdi Azikiwe University currently undergoing my one year National Youth Service Corps program, I am looking to gain expertise and work experience in my field of interest. I have a wide variety of skill set in areas including Geosciences, ICT and Engineering necessary to be successful in this role.

As a young and newly graduated geoscientist, I have taken full advantage of numerous opportunities to develop my research, innovative and analytical skills. I have developed a keen interest in the oil and gas industry, developing myself by learning new and advance software and improving my all round knowledge of petroleum geosciences and other related fields. I have experience in carrying out geological field mapping, geological researches and geophysical survey, and integrating the right software suites to analyze and interpret data. For example, in 2017 during my Industrial training I worked with a geotechnical engineering firm, I supervised field data acquisition and maintenance of field equipments while also taking a professional course on well log interpretation using Schlumberger's PETREL. Additionally, this past year I carried out a research on well logging and formation evaluation with the aid of PETREL and gave a seminar presentation on the topic. During my final year project I carried out geological mapping and geophysical survey of Ishiagu in Ebonyi State. I integrated different software suites such as MS Application software, SEDLOG, Ipi2win to interpret and write a detailed report of the project.

In addition to my skills, I am result oriented, a team player, and I have developed strong communication skills through my experience as an undergraduate giving solid power point presentations and engaging in research studies.

I am confident my education, skills and experience make me a competitive applicant for this position. I am highly motivated and very keen to learn more from your organization if and when given the chance and to add to the growth and development of your organization. For additional information about my background, my résumé has been provided. Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to a feedback from you.

Sincerely,
B. Chimuanya Ibecheozor
